Jim Clark - The Best of the Best. by David Tremayne . Motoring and motorsport are no strangers to commemoration. Since we discovered nostalgia, some time back in the 1990s, not a year has passed without yet another "celebration" of a past Grand Prix or Le Mans victory, or the debut of a sports car. You can take it as read that the word "icon" will be strewn around the publicity hype and it doesn't take too much cynicism to believe that the motivation behind most anniversary ...

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Jim Clark: The Best of the Best

Jim Clark is the quiet champion. In the 1960s Formula One was not regularly televised and frankly there is a dearth of footage of this two time world champion and Indy 500 winner. Jim Clark grew up in a farming community in the Borders town but had a need for speed and started racing locally before teaming up with Colin Chapman and the Lotus team.
