Robert McDermott - New Essential Steiner - Floris Books

Rudolf Steiner captures the essence of Christianity, then added his exposure to Indian Hindi with karma to describe a process to drive moral behavior, instead of blind reliance on religion. His most important contribution is to focus on the framework of religion in the context of living a moral life, recognizing specific instances of contributions to improve (as illustrated with his example of Augustine's focus on the original sin to help spread Christianity) and the spiritual realm that ...
